

In the fall of 1948 thirty frightened freshmen started on a new and unknown journey through high school. There were many new faces. They were: Martha Levitski, Joe Lopez, Glenn Hehrer, Richard Levitski, Mary Gross, Sally Mokransy, James Buchholz, Joyce Buchholz, Helen Gavenda, Ray Fetterman, Keith Wing, Ralph Nixon, Robert Saylor, Grace Knoblauch, and Grace Garrett. We elected officers and they were as follows:

- President.....Charles Fountain
- Vice-President.....Betty Simcox
- Secretary.....Keith Wing
- Treasurer.....Grace Knoblauch
- Student Council.....Bob Oswald and Janet Cordray

Mr. Wolfthal was selected as our class sponsor. The only money-making project was a box social, which netted $30.00. During the year we were sorry to lose Martha Levitski, Richard Levitski, Joe Lopez, Ronnie Rings, Mary Gross and Sally Mokransy. At the end of the year we had $157.43 in the class treasury.

Twenty-six students re-entered school at the beginning of the Sophomore year. Delores Stoneman and Lillian Fisher were new that year. We again elected officers as follows:

- President.....Georgann Mitchell
- Vice-President.....Charles Fountain
- Secretary.....Betty Simcox
- Treasurer.....Marvin Stine
- Student Council.....Keith Shaw and Janet Cordray

This time Mrs. Foster Mitchell as sponsor. We had a "Halloween Hop", Minstrel Show and various bake sales as money making projects. They were all very successful.

We are now the Junior Class.

In the fall of 1950 we started the year out right by initiating the Freshmen. The projects this year were: a second "Halloween Hop", a small operetta, raffle of a doll, a Chop Suey Supper, baked goods and candy sales, and the Junior play entitled "Here Comes Charlie". The class officers were:

- President.....Janet Cordray
- Vice-President.....Charles Fountain
- Secretary.....James Buchholz
- Treasurer.....Georgann Mitchell
- Student Council.....Grace Knoblauch and Keith Shaw

Mrs. Mitchell proved to be a successful sponsor and was elected again this year. The most important events of this eventful year were the Junior-Senior Banquet which was held at Updykes Cafe in Alma, and the Prom, for which the theme was "Evening in Paradise", and decorated accordingly.

Our heartiest congratulations to the Seniors who have been such good friends throughout the high school years.
