

"I AM RESPONSIBLE" might be the slogan for the Safety Patrol.

Captain Jerry Mills and Lieutenant-Captain Cathie Keck guided this year's Safety Patrol through another accident-free school year.

The organization was composed of fifty-four active members of the fourth, fifth, and sixth grades. While on duty, patrol members wore white cross-belts and green arm bands.

Each month, a meeting was held to discuss problems concerning the group. Two chart makers were chosen at these times to layout corner guards. Inspection was held every two weeks.

As rewards for their fine duties the Safety Patrol was taken to a football game at Mt. Pleasant and was invited by Mrs. Ellen Bacigal and Mrs. Erma Kent, sponsors, to a Christmas and a spring party.

Organizations Develop Responsibilities Early for Elementary Students

ELEMENTARY STUDENT COUNCIL--STANDING: Shelia Oswald, Kim Cordray, Lucy Palek, Claude Felton, Mary Liska, Patty Robbe, Monte Lator, Christine Strpko, and Jesse Patrick. SEATED: Cathy Keck, vice-president; John Densmore, president; and Jeanne Kent, secretary. Linda Hanus, treasurer, was absent at picture time.

Monkey-bars, for the elementary playground, were purchased by the Elementary Student Council. Money borrowed from the P-TA was used to purchase the play-ground equipment. The funds were completely repaid through the sales of candy, paper, pens, and pencils.

Mrs. Joyce Dietz took over the duties of advisor after Mrs. Betty MacDonald resigned from teaching. Mrs. Ella Mae Beck helped guide the organization.
