

Girls Lead in Academic Honors

Named Valedictorian for the 1966-67 school year is Miss Frances Kay Vanek, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Vanek of rural Ashley.

Among her achievements was being named the DAR Good Citizen by her fellow classmates and teachers. She has been a member of the National Honor Society for three years. One of her major interests was F.T.A. She has been an active member for three years, serving as President during her Junior year, and also being a cadet teacher. She held the office of Secretary for the Senior class. Working on the Spotlight and Annual Staffs occupied much of her time in her Senior year.

Other activities for Frances included three years of basketball, six years of 4-H, and being in the Junior Play cast. Frances plans to attend Central Michigan University where she will study to become a teacher.
