The 1976 baseball season was as unpredictable as the spring weather. The season started out slow, losing the first two games but it improved in the middle; the Bears won five straight games. We ended up with a 8-9 record; 3-3 in the M. S. A. C. good for second place. The highlights of the season were: Rob Paksi being pick on the Baseball All-State First Team, Rob Paksi having a .426 batting ave., Wayne Collins batting .400 and having 19 RBI's and Kurt Bigelow's 3 Home Run's. The team was young and inexperienced but improved and we have a good nucleus coming back.
