

J.V. BOYS BASKETBALL

The J.V. boys basketball team ended up on the short end of a 5-15 record overall; while going 4-6 in league play.

Dave Palek and Jim Custer led the team in two major categories. Palek had 234 points for a 12.4 average, while Custer had 189 points that came out to a 9.5 average. Custer also had 175 rebounds while Palek added 112 boards.

The team was led defensively by Dave Palek who managed to swipe the ball from the opposition 60 times.

The reason for the Bears demise was obvious, as they gave up 51.7 points a game, while only scoring 41.3 points a game. MVP Dave Palek.
