

The 1981-82 Junior Varsity Basketball season was one of disappointment but also of learning experience for the 12 member of the squad. The boys compiled a 3-17 overall record with a 2-8 record in league play.

The JV Bears had trouble putting points on the board as they could only account for an average of 37.4 points a game against their opponents.

Brent Shelton led the team in scoring with 131 points for a 6.6 point average. He was followed by Burwell Mackall's 112 points for a 5.6 point average. Mackall led the rebounders with 134 boards for a 6.6 rebound average. Shelton pulled down 111 for a 5.6 rebound average.

Defensively, Rod Burk and Jason Custer led the team with 24 steals apiece. The MVP — were Burwell Mackall and Brent Shelton
