

The 1982 Varsity Football Cheerleaders were active in a number of events this year.

The Girls made many colorful posters for around the school and in the gym. They also made locker decorations for each one of the players.

They had two very successful bake sales to raise money to replace this years uniforms for next years squad.

The Girls also held two pep assemblies. One was for Homecoming which was held after the parade by the firehall and the other one was for a very important game against Laingsburg.

Coaching the girls this year was Sheri Dyer.
