The 1983-84 JV Boys Basketball team had a year of struggle as they managed to win only 6 victories over 14 defeats. The JV Bears were coached by Mr. Gary Schestag.

Although the Bears always seemed to be outsized, they always stayed in there and made the games close.

Bob Ordway seemed to be the gun for the JV Bears as he pumped in 196 points. Ordway was also one of the top rebounders for the Bears as he grabbed a mighty 186 rebounds. Mike Morris led all Bears in rebounding with an awesome 202 boards. Greg Carpenter helped lead the Bears in scoring as he had 142 points.

Scott Paksi and Bob Ordway were both chosen MVP's for the 1983-84 season.
