At half-time of Friday nights game Lisa Saylor and Scott Faber were introduced as the 1983 Queen and King. The juniors received first place with their "Garfield" float, the seniors "Pac Man" float placed second, and the third place float winner was the seventh graders "Snoopy" float. The theme was cartoon characters.

The Bears fell to Morrice 50-0. Following the football game the student council put on the traditional Homecoming dance in which the band Tension played.
