

Senior Travel to Toronto

Class of 1985

Twenty-seven seniors and two chaperones left Ashley taking a Mid-Michigan Coach bus, on April 22, 1985.

The chaperones included Jeff and Marilyn Gearhart. Robert and Dennis Campbell was their bus drivers.

After checking into the Ramada Inn Hotel in Toronto, where they spent three nights, they took the bus to the CN Tower. That same night the group went to the Limelight Dinner theatre where they saw the play "Mame." On Tuesday they went on a sight seeing tour that included the Castle Loma. Later that night they visited the Spaghetti Factory then Young Street. Wednesday night they visited the Ontario Science Center, the Toronto Metro Zoo, then the Eaton Shopping center.

On Thursday, April 25, 1985 they departed for Niagra Falls. The senior class and their chaperones arrived back in Ashley on Friday April 26.
