

IMPROVEMENT WAS FOUND IN '85

VARSITY FOOTBALL: First row (L to R); managers Charlie Howes and Roger Ordway, Second row; John Jelinek, Mark Truxell, Doug Schneider, Jeff Gross, Alan Stehlik, Jason Custer, Rod Burk, Duane Schneider, Third row; Kai Kammer, Martin Eisemann, Scott Paksi, Bill Evans, Darren Cartwright, Russel Klatt, Steve Hardman, Aaron Burk, Jeff Andersen, Pat Cordray, Fourth row; Coach Roger Howes, Ken Konkus, Ken Chvojka, Mike Litwiller, Greg Carpenter, Dicky Moore, Matt Paksi, Tom Belongia, Randy Ordway, Randy Gall, Fifth row; Mike Turner, Rick Saylor, Mike Morris, Todd Andersen, Otis Viles, Bob Ordway, Paul Plesko, Jim Skayrd, and Eric Cook.

The Ashley's football season ended with a record of 3-6 and 1-4 in the MSAC. The season offensive leaders were Rick Saylor passing for 747 yards with 6 touchdowns, and Al Stehlik rushing for 508 yards averaging over 4 yards a carry. Rod Burk had 33 catches for 233 yards averaging 11 yards a catch. The defense was lead by Jason Custer with 84 tackles, Mark Truxell with 76 tackles, and Jeff Gross with 74 tackles.

The 1984 team was coached by Ralph Zammaron which was assisted by Roger Howes.

The 1985 MVP was Jason Custer, MIP Scott Paksi.