The varsity basketball cheerleaders had a rough year.

They were hit pretty hard with illnesses and all the cheerleaders were not there for every game. At the away Vestaburg game only Lori Saxton represented the squad. Two J.V. cheerleaders, Jodi Skaryd and Sheila Keck, got into the spirit and helped her out that night.

All of the cheerleaders, J.V. and varsity, attended a cheerleading clinic in Flint to get new ideas.

"The varsity squad had a feeling of unity and camaraderie this year between both the girls and our coach, Anita Lowe. We're glad she stuck it out," Lori Saxton.
