The guys work together as a team!

This year Ashley sent its senior high Quiz Bowl team to Alma College. They went up against class C Breckenridge on February 1. Even though the team lost, their advisor, Mr. Sanford, thinks it was a good experience to compete against another school.

The team was made up of five people: Duane Schneider, Amy Fabus, Missy Chapman, Otis Viles, and alternate, Mike Morris. These students, along with others, met fifteen times between December and January, including a practice match against the junior high Quiz Bowl team.

The junior high team consisted of Perry Thompson, Amy Burk, Charlie Howes, Jason Saxton, and alternate, Matt Chvojka. The junior high didn't compete against other schools, but it gave them a chance to practice for when they will compete in later years.
