

This year the AHS Drama Club put on a show called, "An Evening's Entertainment." It was presented to the public on May 2 and 4 and went over very well.

They presented three short plays, and the Mime Troup also contributed a fine performance. The evening started out with a skit called, "Not My Cup of Tea," and was immediately followed by the mime acts. After a ten minute intermission things were rolling again with the short play, "Cry of the Hound." This play was different from the others. Not only were there high school students involved, but three third grade girls, Dawn Garcia, Jaime Morris, and Brianna Yelsik played the younger versions of three characters in the play.

There was a light lull in the performance as another intermission was imposed to allow time for scenery changes. The evening was concluded with the skit, "A Pair of the Pickens."
