Yes! They're Gifted

Eighth Graders Terry Good, Roger Ordway, David Sawvel, John Pearson and Jeremy Cartwright show their muscular ability while messing around in gym.

Energetic — a one word definition of the eighth grade class. A word that intertwines their cockiness with their spirit. This is a smooth-running class, eager to be the best they can be. It's a class that strives for the top. A class that moans when they win second prize for their float, because their goal had been first prize.

"I enjoy working with them — they have a lot of enthusiasm . . . so much enthusiasm that it is a challenge to channel them in the proper direction," remarked class sponsor, Mrs. Marilyn Gearheart.
