'89 Turns It Up

Yes, the sophomores are a little hard to motivate. Okay, maybe they're loud in class. Sure, they have their little disputes. But doesn't everyone? Isn't that all just part of high school nature? Now what really stands out about the sophomores is their energy. Which, combined with their unique sense of humor, proves for a great time. The sophomores are always having fun. Whether it's in class, lunch, the halls, or after school, you can see them laughing and teasing each other, or just plain being rowdy. And that's one thing for certain — the sophomore class really knows how to turn up the fun!
