

Jole Tupica, Dawn Limber, and Lori Plesko catch a few moments to chat before they head to last hour Government class.

Never Say Goodbye

Nothing else is quite as satisfying as a best friend, or two or three, as a matter of fact. Many special friendships are formed during a person's life in school, friendships that will last long after the books are put away, and diplomas are signed. After thirteen years it's not easy to say goodbye to the fun times, the laughter, and sometimes tears of a long time friendship, but we have the memories of warm smiles and fun times that will remain with us forever.

An inseparable pair since seventh grade, Cynthia Keller and Holly Harlow are never found too far apart from one another. Talking on the phone, going to the Sock-Hop, and chasing guys are among their favorite co-activities.

Todd Andersen and Todd Carriero are notorious for their love for a good gag. Here, Todd Carriero moves in on Andersen, who's all "prettied up" for Halloween.

Seniors 1987