

Scholars Earn Applause

Football Banquet, Basketball Banquet, Volleyball Banquet, and the Spring Banquet are all examples of banquets that honor the students' athletic talents but there's one banquet that honors the students' academic talents; it's the Scholastic Banquet. This banquet gives recognition to the students who have managed to stay on the honor roll for the whole year, those who have received only one C, those who have maintained a G.P.A. of 3.5, and inducts new members of the NHS into the organization.

The Scholastic Banquet was held on May 21, 1987. Scholastic medals were given to twenty-five students. After these medals had been awarded, fifteen proud parents of the new inductees took their place. The NHS Induction was about to begin. New members of the society were Cathy Strnad, Tammy Sopocy, Chris Shaw, Karin Burlingame, Kim Morris, Chaunda Shaw, Tammy Harris, and Deann Gross.

Pinning the NHS pin on their daughter, Cathy, is the role of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Strnad. Cathy is one of eight new members inducted into the Ann L. Beck Chapter of the National Honor Society at the Scholastic Banquet.

Mr. Wayer and Mr. Seals congratulate Chris Shaw as she becomes a member of the National Honor Society.
