

HUMOR IS A NECESSITY in order for a town of our size to stay together through all times. An example of Ashley humor is shown with our version of the "Silverdome," on U.S. 57

"WHERE'S ASHLEY?" Bear a sharp right and follow the tracks to discover what Bear pride is all about.

"ALL ABOARD!" seems to be what Heidi Harlow and Amy Crumbaugh are saying as they take a friendly afternoon stroll down the railroad tracks running through town. We became well-known for these tracks during the 1983 Centennial.
