

THE DUBIOUS HONOR of being Grand Marshal for the juniors' "mini-parade," falls to clown, David McElhaney.

CREATING A "PICKUP" FLOAT is the first project of the year for FHAers Ronda Mau, Annette Piper, and Tina Pearson.

THE DEMOCRATIC WAY doesn't usually include a King and Queen but exchange students Ulrika Pehrson and Christoph Ulleweit found themselves taking on these honorary rolls.

PRIZE WINNING FRESHMEN, "Burn 'em up!" Shelly Muscott and Tina Pearson promise to fry the Morrice Orioles. Classes spent the entire week before Homecoming working on floats and getting ready for the big day.