

"You'd better be tough." Frank Deming

"Good luck in Government." Mary Lou Kral

"Live each day to the fullest because there may be no tomorrow." Lisa Lacker

"Enjoy it while you're young." John Jelinek

"Gor det unte svarare an vad det ar — ta livet latt och ha kul." (Don't make it more difficult than it is — just enjoy it.) Ulrika Pehrson

Off The Cuff Advice From Seniors

"Enjoy your days in school and don't wish to hurry your school years along, because they go by fast enough and you don't really have time to enjoy them." Cathy Strnad

"Don't take all hard classes. Take classes that you're going to enjoy." Amy Lytle

"Study real hard in classes, and have the determination that you can succeed." Matt Paksi

"Even though high school may seem a drag now, it may prove to be profitable later in life." Julie Kremer

"Never do more than you have to." Jim Skaryd

"To the freshman/sophomore football players: always remember to enforce the rules." Aaron Burk

"Don't listen to the teachers." Bob Oswald

"Reach for your goals. There are lots of things to accomplish in the world, but here in school is where it starts. Never be afraid to have a different opinion — your own." Shelly Felton

"Strive for the best, never give in, and make your years at school ones you'll never forget! Be happy!" Tammy Sopocy

"Reach a goal that you've always been reaching for, and have a good time while doing it." Russell Klatt

"LIFE'S TOO SHORT to dance with ugly women." Eric Cook's motto is a favorite of his to follow. Along with his class mates, Jim Skaryd and Aaron Burk, he brings life into an average school day.

"DON'T SLEEP IN Government." Randy Ordway finds out the hard way that if you don't pay attention in class, then chances are that you won't pass. Government is required of all graduates.

