

THINGS WERE PRETTY DULL until Matt Chvjoka stepped up on the auction block during the slave sale and with his show of muscle, turned the student body on to real Homecoming spirit.

UNIQUE DISPLAY OF SPIRIT is evident in senior David McElhaney as he fires up students around school and at sports events. David premiered as Spirit Bear during Homecoming Week and extended his "Bear Season" through basketball.

MADE IN THE U.S.A. DAY gave Wes Burk and Chaunda Shaw the opportunity to show their school spirit and patriotism. Wes was disappointed because he received a lot of flack from students and teachers about the flag he wore for spirit.
