

SWISH! DAWN STROUSE scores these two points as the Bears rally for six points in the final 35 seconds to defeat Sacred Heart, 19-17.

Hard Work, Dedication And Commitment Pay Off!

"We won all our games and started believing we could win all the time," smiled Chaunda Shaw, reminiscing about her junior high basketball days.

"In junior high it was to win, but now it goes beyond winning; it's to be the best." Chaunda has played basketball ever since she was seven years old, learning the ropes from her father, Keith, and her brother, Kelly, on her driveway while the radio played.

She reflected, "Yes ... I have more memories and achievements that a lot of high school basketball players. I felt lucky."

