

It Takes A Special Person To Be Behind The Mask

She puts on her catcher's equipment with the temperature trying to reach the 80's and sweat rolling down her face. Balls in the dirt punish her body. Ann Fabus doesn't mind all this. She says, "I just take so much pride in being a catcher and throwing runners out. It's hard work, but I really like being involved with every ball being pitched." Not only is Ann a good defensive catcher, but she led the lady Bears with a batting average of .560. With Ann's catching ability and team leadership, the Bears are never out of any game.

ENJOYING THE ACTION, Kim Morris and Char Evans rest between innings, hoping the Bears can mount a rally. The Bears went on to defeat Carson City.

LICK THOSE FINGERS! Jody Felton gets ready to step in to bat at Carson City. Jody batted .340, while supplying a good glove at second base.
