

OH, HOW CUTE! Just look at Mrs. Suzy Homemaker as she whips up one of her delicious desserts for the journalism class. Mrs. Suzanne Luneack loves to bake for the class because she has to push them so hard.

SPICIN' IT UP is something Mrs. Martinez loves to do. She really gets a kick out of giving her students a new look at other cultures in world geography by whipping up ethnic dishes. Her favorite treat to prepare is tostadas.

ANY TIME OR ANYWHERE, if you want to talk, Mr. Schestag is the man to see. A familiar scene during lunch is Mr. Schestag talking to Jody Felton and Traci Andersen about the student council.

Mr. Gary Schestag
Industrial Arts

ONCE A COACH, ALWAYS A COACH, claims Mrs. Seals, who coached basketball years ago. As veteran stats-keeper for junior high teams, watching the players make those inevitable learning mistakes and then build into mature players is very rewarding.

Mrs. Ruth Seals
English