

Seniors

Friends Forever

E.H.S. CHOIR

We've known each other for such a long time.

But our time together is nearly through.

Our school days have slipped away,

And though we say we'll keep in touch,

We both know it's just not true.

You'll go your way and I'll go mine.

We're both out to conquer the world.

But whatever happens I want you to know,

I'll never forget you. And we'll be

Friends Forever.

Perry Thompson

Hopefully, Mrs. Barteo will continue to instruct the choir

TOGETHER AS USUAL, Jason Saxton and Tom Fabus represent the senior class in the three legged race at the snake dance. Besides being legged together for this race, Tom and Jason have been friends for years. They even started a business together. It was called TJ's and they made lots of money at it by selling buttons.

THE CLASS WITH CLASS, a title bestowed by Mr. Walden, describes the seniors perfectly. They excel at sports, in the classroom, and at the mischief that all senior classes are known for.
