Excitement!

Starting out their season with an overtime win, the eighth grade team, coached by Randy Stehlik, knew it wouldn't be easy. To come out on top, they had to give it all they had. They had to overcome the suspension of one player due to a ruling concerning age and had to forfeit that hard-fought, first game. They gave it their best shot, but ended with a less than perfect score of 3-9.

Ellery Sosebee led the team in everything from scoring to rebounds. He averaged 11 points and 4.5 rebounds per game, ending the season with 132 points, including one three point shot, and fifty-five rebounds. Larry Litwiller followed with 102 points, including three three-point shots and thirty-four rebounds. The team ended the season with a field goal percentage of 29 and a three point percentage of 67.

How did the team feel? Warren Faircloth summed it up: "It was good. Everyone on the team improved, to an extent."

The seventh grade team, coached by Bill Cartwright, on the other hand, had an extremely successful season, with an ending record of 9-3.

Marty Cartwright led the action with 173 rebounds and 205 points, with an average of 14.4 rebounds and 17 points per game. Jeremy Ringle followed with 49 points for the season while Joey Jungnitsch and Jason Pendleton grabbed 71 and 38 rebounds, respectively.

Both teams had many talented players. This talent should take these teams a long way in the next few years.

POWER BOARDS — Marty Cartwright pulls down one of his career high 173 rebounds. The seventh grade team blew Elsie away with a 33-13 victory.
