

A MOMENT TO REMEMBER for Charlie Howes and Jody Felton as they claim the Homecoming '89 honors. Jody and Charlie share a hug and tear as they are announced as this year's royal pair.

Even though the temperature was low, the spirit was high in Ashley. The wind gusted through the field as the game was about to start. Not even this could stop the Bears from jumping out to a 30-0 halftime lead.

As the teams filed into the locker-rooms, the band took the field. The moment was finally here as the crowd slowly hushed. The eight senior reps stood silently on the risers, waiting for Mr. Schestag's announcement.

"I just felt real numb and kept thinking there is no way that my name would be called."

"I was looking at the girl who I thought was going to get it and I was squeezing the life out of Brian's hand. I was getting ready to congratulate the winner," said Queen Jody Felton.

"I just felt real numb and kept thinking there is no way that my name would be called." To his surprise, Charlie Howes was the 1989 Homecoming King.

After the lights went out over the football field, Homecoming night in Ashley slowly came to an end. But the memories of the 36-0 win and the new King and Queen will always be there.
