

MINNIE GIGGLES as the mime enjoys a lapful of "Mouse Woman!" Shawn Sopocy and Kevin Saylor get into the spirit of Halloween.

FRIENDSHIP IS WHAT IT IS ALL ABOUT at Ashley High. Freshmen Stephanie Murdock, Kelly Jurstik, Dana Deming, Jenny Powelson, and JoAnna Thompson show off their close bonds as they enjoy a break outside.

WHO'S

HAPPENING ?

"Ashley's small size and family atmosphere is an intricate part of our heritage."

By Kurt Densmore

6 Who's Happening

Ashley boasts an assortment of students with a variety of skills and imagination. Each student sports his or her own unique personality which has been influenced slightly by every other student with whom they associate. Ashley's small size and family atmosphere is an intricate part of our heritage. Our size creates a bond between each student that is only found at schools that are fortunate enough to be as small as ours. Although Ashley's magnitude isn't as great as other schools, we make up for it in spirit, hard work, and dedication. This good work ethic pays off when Ashley's students succeed in college and later make an impact in today's rapidly changing world. If you want more proof of Ashley students' spirit, dedication, and hard work, just come and watch one of our sports teams in action. Even though we are dwarfed in population compared to most of our competition, we have athletes willing to put forth an enormous effort to prevail as the winners. This effort, devotion, good work ethic and vitality will help Ashley students make their way through life.