

NICE HAND STAND ... Joe Beracy shows what he can do with a bass drum. He can also play most of the other percussion instruments. Joe says he likes the drums because, "You can really get jammin' on them."

PLAYING THE WOODWINDS ... Diane Mitchell tunes her clarinet, and Heather Vanzee does the same on her flute during second hour band. Not only does the band practice during school, but they put in lots of hours outside of school.
