

THREADS?^{Whose}

“What Am I Going To Wear Today?”

Fashion. It's something almost everyone strives for. It's what you spend endless hours and limited dollars in the mall trying to achieve. It's the reason more than a few girls get up two hours early every morning.

Different threads mean different things to different people. When you see that purple and yellow polka dot blouse on the hanger, your first reaction might be a resounding “Yuck!” But to someone else it could be the bargain of a lifetime.

At Ashley, there are a few different opinions about clothes. From the teachers to the students, fashion is definitely something to look for. It can be in the form of a cool new outfit or jeans and a T-shirt. But no matter what it looks like, it's always there!

IS THIS ONE HANDSOME STUD, OR WHAT? Junior C.J. Lowe shows off his finely-tuned fashion sense as he strikes a casual pose. C.J. is a member of the varsity basketball team, and the team traditionally dresses up on game days.