

"THERE ONCE WAS A FELLOW NAMED WES ..." Jim Drummond and Cory Gavenda read limericks they wrote for each senior during the creative writing class's Roast and Toast to the seniors.

HOW WOULD EUCLID ANSWER? That question seems to be on the minds of Joe Merignac and Jennifer Keck as they finish up their geometry tests. One of the more unique assignments for this class was measuring the water tower. Euclid would be proud.