

CHEERING FROM THE SIDELINES, Coaches Sherm Hedricks and Bruce Andersen enthusiastically root the Bears on as Duane Saylor runs into the end zone. Duane scored both of the touchdowns on homecoming night to send Ashley to another victory.

SMILING AT THE CROWD, Lynette Saylor and Jeremy Cartwright enjoy their newly-crowned reign as Homecoming queen and king.

1990 Homecoming More Than The Usual Game It Was Definitely A Night To Remember

The date was Friday, September 28. The place was the Ashley High School football field. The event was the 1990 homecoming game against Vestaburg. At 7:30 p.m., both teams were ready to play and took the field.

At the end of the first half, the Bears were leading. The band took the field and everyone waited anxiously for the announcement of the king and queen. The class representatives and homecoming court walked down the field and took their places on the risers in front of the crowd. "The new 1990 homecoming king is Mr. Jeremy Cartwright!" boomed across the field. When the cheers died down, Lynette Saylor was announced as homecoming queen. The court and band left the field, and the football game kicked into high gear. Did being crowned homecoming king affect Jeremy's game? "Absolutely not," he said.

At the end of the fourth quarter, the scoreboard read Ashley 14, Vestaburg 6. The Bears had another victory and also a new king and queen. Coach Sherm Hendricks picked the highlight of the game as "Calling the pass and having Cory Gavenda hit Duane Saylor right on the button for the first touchdown of the game."
