

"One of four!" the Bears chant after they beat Britton-Macon to take the regional championship. Front row: J.C. Stoll, Terry Good, Rob Harris, Scott Polash, Kevin Klatt, Jim Drummond, Ellery Sosebee, Cory Gavenda, Christopher Sosebee Back row: Coach Sherm Hendricks, Dave Fowler, Bob Mason, Bryan Howe, Nigel Belanger, Dominic Lowe, Jamey Bearden, Dave Brown, Tony Gaston, Brandon Malek, Adam Palmatier, Matt Miller, Scott Brzak, Richard Kremer, D.J. Denman, Tom Powelson, Duane Saylor, Jeremy Cartwright, Christopher Lowe, Terry Densmore, Tim Bush, Kurt Densmore, Coach Bruce Andersen.

1990-91 PLAYOFFS

34	Pontiac Oakland Catholic	0
36	Britton-Macon	18
6	Lawrence	38

SCRAMBLING FOR ONE MORE YARD, Scott Polash, "The Horse," plows through Britton-Macon's defense for a few of his 227 yards. Looking on are Jim Drummond, Matt Miller, and Richard Kremer.

(Below) STANDING UP AGAINST THE DEFENSE, Jeremy Cartwright and Robby Harris help to halt Pontiac Oakland Catholic in their tracks. The Bears held the Titans to 143 yards on the ground and 23 from the air.

