

READY, SET! Danielle Burk, Kelli Felton, and Shawn Easterbrook prepare for their Hello cheer.

New coach, many obstacles, nevertheless

Cheerleaders Reach Goals

This was an interesting year for the cheerleaders. When the school year started, they didn't have a coach. One week before the first football game they found their coach, Jodi Skayrd. They didn't get to cheer for the first game since they hadn't had practice. Once practice started, it was long and hard. Jodi was hard on the girls in the beginning, to let them know just because she was young didn't mean they'd get off easy. Their hard work paid off; they cheered the team on to victory after victory. Their goal was to get the crowd to respond and they finally accomplished it. During both football and basketball sessions the cheerleaders overcame a lot of obstacles and showed everyone they were there to have fun and cheer the guys on. "It was one of the best seasons we've had because we worked together so well and had a coach that really wanted to make us something," commented captain, Shelly Muscott.
