

Time To Remember

Full Of Fun And Excitement

Imagine a week full of fun . . . getting to dress up on certain days in a special way, each day being so unique. Monday was Favorite Sports Day; Tuesday, Ugly Shirt and Boots Day; Friday, Blue and Gold Day. Famous Person Day was a popular day. There were a lot of participants on this day. We all caught the act of Mrs. Bongard, Mrs. Gearhart and Mr. Feeley as Al Capone and his molls.

During the annual slave auction, the football players brought down the house with their awesome poses!

Thursday night the cheerleaders cheered and spirit was spread all around the bonfire. Who could forget the football players trying to cheer with the cheerleaders, when Matt Miller got in between the cheerleaders and moved with them? It was a time when everybody could get together and be free. Matt Miller, Cory Gavenda, and Chris Sosebee gave their own little speeches on how it didn't matter if they won or lost, they'd always be a great team, no matter what!

The parade went on, rain or shine. The rain didn't spoil all the spirit. It was a week to remember!

"QUITE THE LADIES MAN" is Mr. Shawn Feely with Mrs. Connie Bongard and Mrs. Marilyn Gearhart. They got into the spirit of Homecoming week by dressing up as gangster Al Capone and his "molls" on Favorite Person Day.

It was a wonderful experience being on court even though I wasn't chosen for queen.
