

What's The

Most Important

Ambition?

Future Homemakers of America and Students Against Driving Drunk. These are two organizations bound by one common thread: helping out. FHA and SADD have always been involved in the lives of students, but this year they took it one step further.

Around Christmas, the FHA started collecting food and clothing items to be donated to families in need. They also sponsored the junior high prom again this year.

SADD lent a hand by distributing Contracts for Life. These are documents signed by students and parents, guaranteeing a safe trip home if a student

R. Woody

NO QUESTIONS ASKED, SADD member Brenda Saylor and President Jenny Powelson sign the Contract for Life. This states that if a teenager is drunk or has been drinking, she will call her parents, with no questions asked at that time.

Helping

People

Out

feels he or she can't drive. SADD also tied red ribbons on car antennae.

When it comes to helping out, these two organizations have done more than their fair share.

R. Woody

Organizations

ROMANCE IS IN THE AIR! Brianna Yelsik and Travis Polash gaze into each other's eyes as Jaime Morris and Elliott Lowe look on. This year's FHA-sponsored junior high prom was a huge success.