

Quizzers

Shine

Through

M. Wolfe

SIX BALL, CORNER POCKET! Chris Sosebee dazzles everyone in the room with his pool expertise during a break at the state quiz team finals.

Who?

What?

Where?

This was a year of firsts for the quiz teams. During the first semester, the junior high quiz team participated in a statewide competition. Then it was the senior high team's turn. During the winter they traveled to White Cloud for an open division competition and ended up taking top place. Their next big win came at Breckenridge, guaranteeing their qualification for the quiz team state finals in Port Huron. Mrs. Karen Martinez, advisor, felt that, to some extent, this was a team of specialists. Matt Miller and Brett Paski were all-around consultants, and Michelle Wolfe and Jim Drummond the Bible authorities, Cory Gavenda ringing in on math and Chris Sosebee fielding the sports area.

M. Wolfe

"ANYBODY? ANYBODY?" Cory Gavenda, Matt Miller, Jim Drummond and Brett Paski wait for the toss up question at the state quiz team state finals in Port Huron.