

How

 About Our

 Attitude?

If anything, school is a place for education. But it's also a place of friendship, not only between students but also with faculty. With the help of three hard-working organiza-

K. Lytle
 "PUTTING IT TOGETHER!" Traci Hardman, Teri Mills, and Amy Felton leaf through old yearbooks to find ideas to add spark to their yearbook pages.

tions, teamwork is emphasized. One example is the National Honor Society. NHS is composed of students who are not only smart, but have strong character, leadership, and service qualities.

The Student Council donated money to our library for magazine racks and put on an awesome Twirp Week.

And where can you look at all the great things these groups have done? The yearbook, of course! This year's journalism staff has worked hard to provide the best yearbook ever.

Work!

Work!

Work!

J. Ortman
 Journalism class, Front row: Kelly Lytle, Amy Felton, Heidi Harlow, Erica Densmore, Robin Woody, Andrea Simon, Shawn Sopocy Back row: Teri Mills, Danielle Burk, Kelli Felton, Jennifer Keck, Michelle Wolfe, Janette Stehlik, Amy Crumbaugh, Mrs. Suzanne Luneack (Advisor), Linda Miller, Joe Merginac.