Hard Work

But . . .

Organizations at Ashley keep the students busy! Office practice is one job that helps out. It takes a load off secretary, Phyllis Shaw. "I couldn't get along without them, they help out very much", commented Phyllis. Students in office practice have their hands full filing, delivering messages, and running errands.

Cadet teaching is another big responsibility for a student. Helping kids and correcting papers are an essential part of being a cadet teacher. "They help out a lot," quoted Mrs. Karen Martinez. Being organized is a very
