

E arly Morning Tasks

As the alarm rings in your ears, you realize that it's time to go to school. Even though school is a necessary evil, it's a must for survival in today's society. How do you prepare for another fun-filled day of secondary education at Ashley? Robin Woody spends her early morning hours making sure every hair is in place. This is just one everyday job that the juniors perform before they go to school.

K. Lytle

C. Good

I do my chores.
— Chad Good

I brush my teeth.
— Angie Camp

I go back to sleep.
— Ryan Kirkpatrick

I go to the bathroom.
— Diane Mitchell

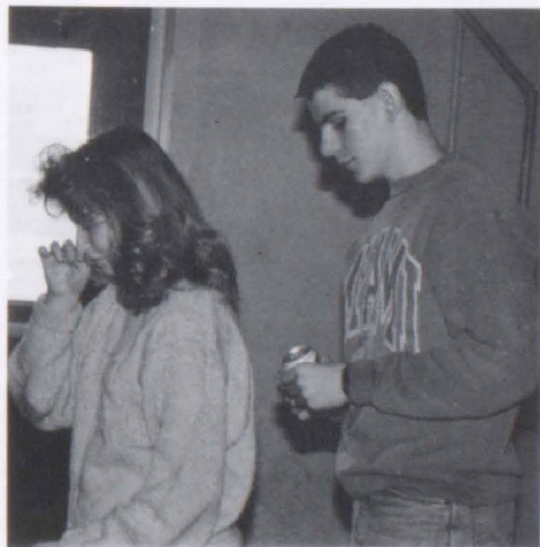

A. Camp

R. Kirkpatrick

D. Mitchell

K. Lytle

I HATE WAITING IN LINES! Exchange student Igor Marinkovic waits patiently in line for the vending machine during lunch. Igor is from Yugoslavia.