

HEAR NO EVIL, SPEAK NO EVIL . . . For some students, lunch hour can be described in one word — "boring." But for seniors Larry Wagner, Jeremy Dolloff, Dee Dee Scaggs and Roger McElhaney, just sitting in the cafeteria and talking is enough to spice up lunch hour.

Time Changes Everything...

Every year, Ashley High School bids a fond farewell to the graduating senior class. But this year, Ashley is not only losing a class, it's losing a personality. The class of 1992 has its many distinctions. How many other classes have taken trips to the same place twice? Or, how about the great first aid kit sale? This class is definitely not afraid to try something new. But that's not what makes us unique. That's not what makes us special.

Throughout the trips and the sales projects and the seemingly endless classes, many friendships have sprung up. It's a great feeling to look over at the person sitting next to you in government class and know they'll be there for you whenever you need them.

When you think of the words "senior year," you usually think of it as the end. The end of school days, the end of the great times with all your friends, the end of a career. But being a senior doesn't just mean the end, it also signals a new beginning. "If you can imagine it, you can achieve it. If you can dream it, you can become it."

CAMERA SHY? NO WAY! Senior Lena Barnes always has a smile on her face. Why is she always so happy? "I'm always with my friends and we're usually having a good time! I like to see other people smile."
