

UP, UP, AND AWAY!!! Cody Osborn gives Josh Harnick a lift as Brandon Krueger, Kristen Fabus, and Amy Strouse watch the show. Cody and Josh enjoy playing a good game of basketball against one another when they have an extra minute.

All This TIME

AHS Time Full Of Fun And Friends

If people have anything to say about this year, it should be about all the new friendships that were created and all the old ones that were cemented down.

You can go anywhere and see friends talking and laughing. Go in the cafeteria and join in conversations with Jenny Bearden, Scott McGillis, and Jeremy Dolloff. At lunch time if you get too bored you can always find people outside on the steps when the weather's nice. Just toss your coat down and take in some sun with friends.

When the day finally comes to an end, that's not exactly what it is for AHS friends. Some are uptown or just walking around. "After school, we like to jump the hills in the road with Traci's car!" exclaims Amy Felton.

So, as you can see, here and around campus, friendships are a big part of school and without them it would just be a shell of a building: no smiles, no laughter, and most important of all, no happiness. Just a shell. And to fill your time in high school with friends will mean the good times never end, no matter what the clock says.

K. Lytle

♣ YOU CALL THOSE POKER FACES?!? Brad Huntoon, Chad Huntoon, Steve Strnad, and Brandon Viles have fun with cards during their lunch hour. They usually don't play for money.

♠ Ho! Ho! Ho! Mr. Bruce Andersen proves to be a good friend by giving Danielle Burk the "müffel" award. Müffel means someone who hates everything, in German.