

NUMBER ONE IN SPIRIT! The usual dark and rainy homecoming day turns bright when the cheerleaders and football players display their spirit-painted faces. It is a time of bonding, when friends are close.

"It was a good day. It cleared up and it didn't rain for the parade. The temperature was perfect."

Brandon Malek

"The night was exciting, cold and filled with thoughts of who would be king and queen. I was really excited to be on homecoming court."
