So Little Time To Do Whatcha Wanna Do

It's 3:05 on a Friday afternoon. A scream from the bell dismisses students from their seventh hour class. It's what everyone longs for ... the weekend!

Some students spend their weekend working a job. Some students just enjoy staying home and some like going out.

It's not unusual to find a row of cars on Sterling Street in downtown Ashley on a weekend night. Cars full of screaming girls, music blasting and guys showing off their vehicles. People gather uptown to talk to their friends about everything. What's there to do?

READY TO ROLL! Robin Woody rushes back to the car after paying for gas. Robin, Sharon Keck and Andrea Becker pooled their change to come up with five dollars for gas to cruise Owosso.

Why not watch some early morning cartoons? Wrapped up in your favorite blanket, dressed in your favorite P.J.'s and nibbling on a bite to eat, enjoying the satisfaction of watching Elmer Fudd's escapades, instead of being at school, listening to your algebra teacher telling you about fractions or your P.E. teacher making you run the mile.

The weekend ... that two days we all live for!!
