

Where's Ashley?

Where it all begins...

OUR GOALS

is right here at home

The beginning. A dreaded thought for anyone starting something new, whether it is the first day at school, on the job, or even the start of a new year. Sometimes it is a struggle to get used to something different, but we always manage to find our way through. The beginning.

Where would we be without a beginning? None of our dreams would ever be reached without a beginning somewhere, sometime. To many people the first day of school is always a goal to complete, especially for seventh graders. They wonder if they will ever make it to the next year, or even the next day. To them, the road ahead is a long and winding one, but they know it has to begin somewhere.

Our years of school are only the beginning of a learning process that will last us for the rest of our lives. Learning to deal with people, homework, and life in general begins right here in Ashley.

HOME, SWEET, HOME. As we enter the village of Ashley, we are reminded once again that this is the place where we have begun. Wherever we go from here, Ashley will still be home.
