

ways and Forever. It was held at the Clinton County Country Club on May 6, from 7:30 until midnight. Decorations were in purple and black.

"I never realized setup was such a big job, but we got it done and it was a successful night," commented junior class advisor Ms. Kristy Yodzevicis.

Prom favors included a garter and a keychain for everyone and a beer mug or wine glass to each, depending on their gender.

Some students were nervously awaiting prom. Jennifer Pendleton, first time promgoer, stated, "I was very nervous, but I had a good time." But for others, like Shelby Osborn who has attended six proms, it's old hat. "For the first one, I was nervous, but after that it got easier," said Shelby.

So with tickets purchased, reservations made, dresses bought, and tuxedos rented, it's off to the prom.

Jennifer Denniston

S. Luneack

S. Luneack

COME ON, BABY, DO THE LOCOMOTION As the disc jockey plays The Locomotion, Dynean Payne, Joy Goward, and Jenny Leiner take their place in the "train."

LET'S DANCE THE NIGHT AWAY Jaime Morris and Joe Jungnitsch show off their dancing skills. Jaime commented, "We just went as friends, but we had a good time."

