enjoy life, and some will enter higher levels of education such as a college or university.

A few seniors with career ideas include Rick Evans, who plans to use his vocational training in the automechanic field, Brandon Viles who will spend his time with the National Guard, and Brianna Yelsik who will seek a higher level of education at Alma College.

Each senior has his or her own goals and will strive to achieve them in the best way. The future is in the hands of the class of '95.
