

Subs Under Seige

It's more than a mouthful

"I like to sub at Ashley, mostly because everyone knows everyone. It's a small school and many of the students are concerned greatly about their grades. I like that kind of attitude!" commented Mrs. Nancy Redes, frequent substitute teacher at AHS.

However, students sometimes get the urge to irritate the substitute teacher.

"Can I go to the library?"

"Can I make a vendor run?"

"Can we have a free day?"

Nevertheless, most substitutes feel that Ashley students do respect them, although the students sometimes use the subs to get a free day. Students are usually anxious to get to their class with the substitute.

JUST MY LUCK, ALGEBRA! Mr. Mark Kirkpatrick teaches basic Algebra to the eighth grade class. Mark's worse fear is showing up to a class to substitute and there are absolutely no lesson plans.

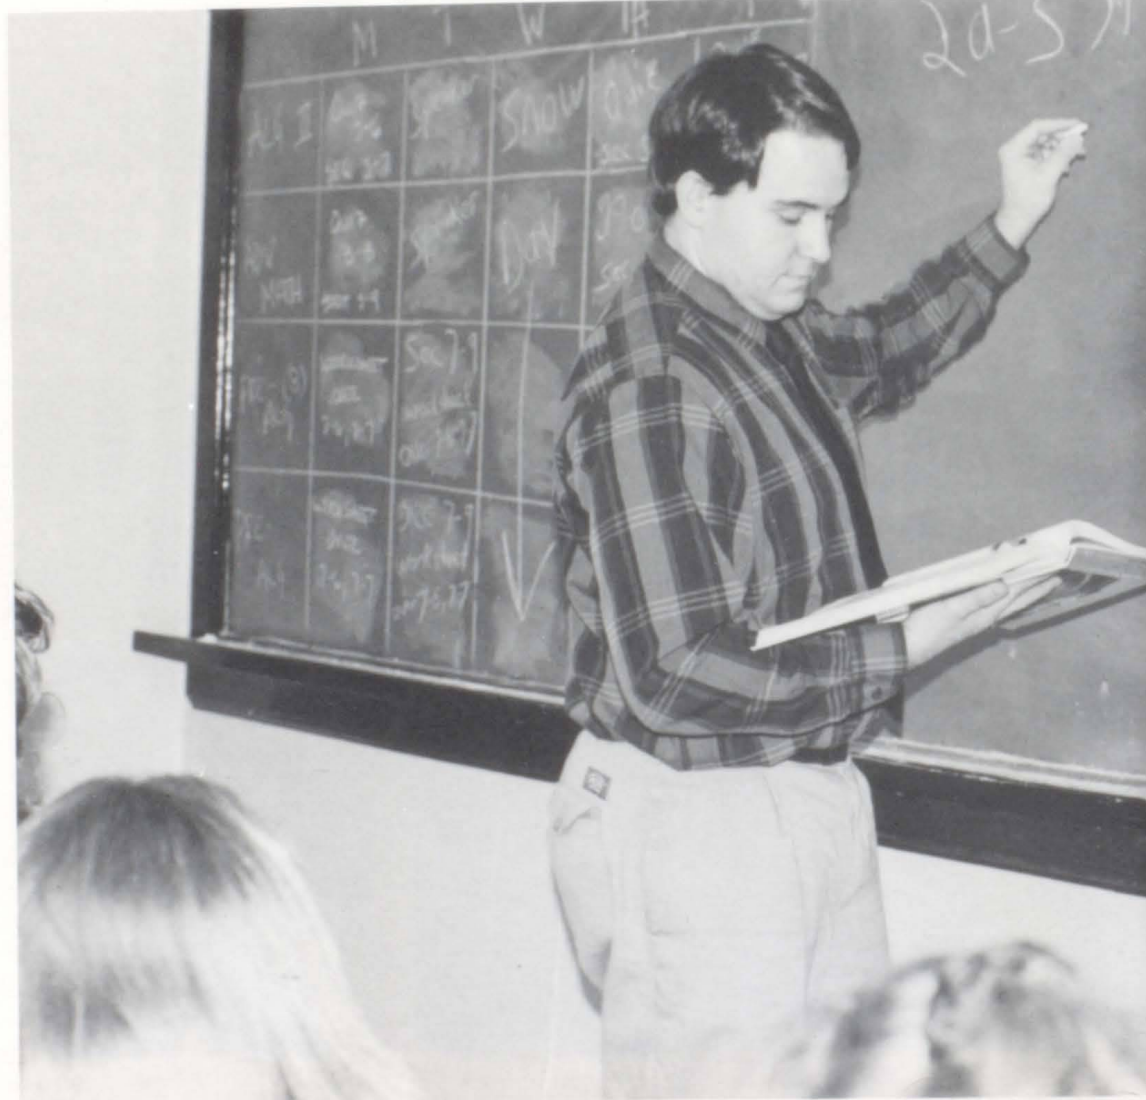

"Overall, Ashley has been a nice friendly place to substitute, although there are a few problems with a couple of students. It's a change from the big schools, but I like it, because I can see the same faces in just about every class and I get to know them better. It's a real friendly environment!" said Mr. Jeff Bigelow.
