

STRIKE A POSE! Pals Trina Sopocy and Jennifer Pendleton are inseparable. They have been friends since elementary. Jenny commented, "We think alike, and we say the same things." These girls are really in sync with each other.

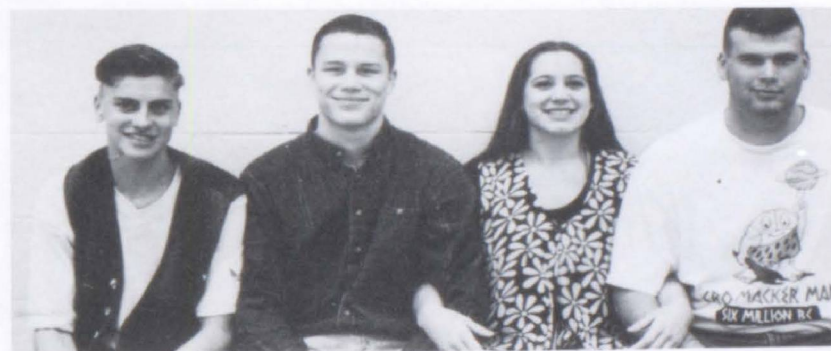

S. Boremann

JUST HANGING OUT! Friends Rachel Dycus, Valerie Miller, Amy Dawson, and Amy Cermac pose for the camera. These young ladies have been friends since kindergarten. The special thing about their friendship is that, "We have been friends for so long. We are all weird except for Rachel and Amy (Cermac)," Amy Dawson commented.

S. Boremann

BOISTEROUS BUDDIES. Jason Saylor, Joe Beracy, Erin Polash, and Marty Cartwright all have one thing in common: they are sports-oriented. Whether it be football or basketball, they can play the game. "We've been friends since eighth or ninth grade, talking in study halls and at lunch," Joe commented.

S. Boremann

BASKETBALL BUDDIES. Buddies Tony Miller, Brian Krueger, and Dan Grollimund take time from playing basketball to pose for the camera. "We like to hang out with friends, listen to a lot of music, and play sports together," Tony stated.

S. Boremann

